

Masterclass

Aotearoa Quilters are proud to announce the 2011 Master Class, with well known New Zealand Quilter

CLARE PLUG

The subject of the class will be
"FINDING YOUR OWN VOICE"

This will be a five day residential class, and will be held at the Silverstream Retreat www.staywithus.co.nz in Lower Hutt.

The dates for this year's class are 26 - 31 AUGUST 2011.

Participants can expect to enjoy the following:

- An introduction to their own creative potential
- Excitement
- Stimulation and challenge
- Hard work
- Affirmation
- Confidence
- Strengthened skills in critical assessment and evaluation
- Creation of support networks
- Sewing!

This class will be for Quiltmakers keen to find the confidence to express themselves and their world through their quilts: a stimulating and challenging studio time in the supportive environment of fellow quilters.

Clare will act as catalyst and facilitator, energizer, resource person.

Clare will provide individualized attention, and create a positive cheerful working environment.

Course participants will bring their own proposed projects, germs of ideas, inspirational books, pictures, fabrics and objects.

Class will be spent developing these own projects, trying new things, making samples and notes, and trying techniques.

The cost for this class with all inclusive meals and accommodation for five nights is $1350 members
$1500 non-members (Members have priority)
